You're on a plane and it's passing over the Amazon Forest. Everything is going smoothly until you suddenly feel a ton of turbulence. Fasten vour Ask a flight attendant if there's seatbelt. anything wrong. The flight You fasten your attendant assures seatbelt and hope you that everything the turbulence will is fine, but you have a gut feeling go away soon. that it's not. The turbulence gets worse, and before you know it you're plummeting into the Amazon. You pass out. When you come to, everyone is gone. What do you do? Look for shelter Look for survivors Look for food While looking and water for shelter you stumble across You look for a leopard's den. You happen to hours without You bet it maims come across a food or water. You stream, you quickly you. You die. BAD find no one and go towards it and END die of exhaustion. only just realize the BAD END. alligator when you're drinking. It definitely notices you. What do you do? keep drinking hightail it outta there what is wrong with you. This isn't a You run away and question. It's a bump into the pilot. statement. What's She said she called for wrong with you. The help and that we'll just alligator kills you. BAD have to wait for a END. rescue plane. GOOD

END